

Ebonee is strictly the best at The King's

Year 7 star Ebonee Thompson-Weaver has just been crowned Southern Dance Master Champion 2016, after wowing judges at a competition in Essex by showing off her waltz, west coast and cha-cha skills.

Ebonee is no newcomer to dance having recently passed exams with flying colours in ballet and tap dance. Ebonee also dances for a local troupe and takes classes in street dance and commercial dance.

With so much success, Ebonee has now been offered a scholarship with the International Dance Teachers' Association (IDTA) in modern dance and will attend auditions later this year.

Ebonee doesn't let this get in the way of her studies though as her favourite subjects are

English and PE.

Huge congratulations Ebonee!
