

Behaviours we value +50 points

Grace, thankfulness, trust, justice, aspiration and celebration is at the heart of The King's values. Underpinning these values are a set of behaviours which will suitably prepare you for the challenge of leading a Christian life, so that you will become good and honest citizens in today's world. Such behaviours are integral to your development and ones which we favour highly.

Academic drive

- Making notable progress – improved, excellent or outstanding
- Making an excellent effort to achieve
- Producing quality, written work
- Being an extended writer
- Showing incredible focus towards a task
- Making effective use of subject specific language

Acting on feedback

- Responding to written comments made by my teacher
- Responding to verbal feedback in my lessons
- Asking my own questions to ensure I understand the feedback I've been given
- Going out of my way to get additional support and guidance to help me achieve

Doing homework

- Handing my homework in consistently on time
- Doing homework to the very best of my ability
- Seeking out teacher help in order to complete the 'tricky bits'
- Going the extra mile with my effort
- Presenting homework with real pride and care

Good manners

- Sitting down to eat, using cutlery appropriately and clearing the table
- Using 'please' and 'thank you'
- Holding doors for staff and other pupils
- Emailing teachers in the correct manner
- Using bins provided for all my litter
- Moving calmly and quietly around the school building

Risk taker

- Explaining my ideas at the front of a class
- Supporting another pupil in their learning
- Trying ideas even when I'm unsure
- Using 'build' and 'challenge' during question time
- Not satisfied with 'OK'; always seeking to challenge myself in lessons

Independence

- Always equipped and organised
- Showing curiosity with my learning – what if...?
- Showing initiative; I don't wait to be asked
- Resilient in the face of difficulties
- Making effective use of SAMlearning, Mathswatch and GCSEPod to help me achieve

Enthusiastic reader

- Showing understanding by summarising
- Reading with expression
- Reading clearly
- Decoding unfamiliar/ difficult words
- Reading fluently

Numerate & literate

- Using ambitious vocabulary
- Speaking in full sentences using Standard English
- Following the literacy code in all aspects of my writing
- Confidently able to recite the key times table facts
- Taking every opportunity to use and practice my mental arithmetic skills

Self-control

- Listening to understand another person's point of view
- Slow to be angry and quick to forgive
- Resisting behaviours I know are wrong but so easy to do
- Being respectful in order to earn respect
- Being patient in all situations